Whereas, The Bond Club of Philadelphia is being honored upon the momentous occasion of its one hundredth anniversary; and

Whereas, The Bond Club of Philadelphia was founded on November 22, 1922, to encourage a spirit of cooperation among individuals engaged in the business of investment securities, to provide professional educational opportunities and to promote and maintain high standards and principles in the profession. The club offers a regular schedule of educational events, which emphasize fixed income, economic and general market-related subjects, and hosts a series of social gatherings throughout the year that offers members the opportunity to network and meet other investment professionals in the greater Philadelphia area. The Bond Club of Philadelphia has funded a Scholarship Fund, which awards financial scholarships to local university students majoring in finance or economics and also provides the opportunity for scholarship recipients to meet with various club members at their place of work for intern-oriented experience. Throughout its history, the Bond Club of Philadelphia has made inestimable contributions to the welfare of society through a sense of fellowship and through its programs, which are designed to enhance the quality of life for all. A succession of dedicated leaders and members has made this possible, keeping ever mindful of the noble maxims of the organization.

Now therefore, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania salutes the Bond Club of Philadelphia upon its richly deserved recognition; offers best wishes for continued growth and success in the years to come;

And directs that a copy of this citation, sponsored by the Honorable Jared G. Solomon on August 23, 2021, be transmitted to the Bond Club of Philadelphia, 1845 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103.
